

Nationals Make It Three Straight, Dixie Walker Blanking Browns

Timely Hitting Beats St. Louis

Gessler and Walker Pound Petty when Cracks Mean Chalks—Dixie Holds Browns Safe—Score is 6 to 0.

By WILLIAM PERRY.

Two beautiful, well-placed swats by Harry Gessler, M. D., and Spartacus Walker, with second and third loaded on each occasion, took all the starch out of the Hon. Barney Petty and the concrete castle yesterday and helped the Nationals partake of another victory over the Browns, the third in a row, and another whitewash, too. Score, 6 to 0.

Manager Jim McAlleer was on the bench after a short vacation, and if he could not sleep soundly last night, he must indeed be a very sick man. That four straight victories in the month of June on the Western trip last month is still fresh in the minds of McAlleer and his followers, and this old revenge stuff tastes mighty sweet. One more win to-day and somebody's cup of joy will be filled to overflowing.

The Nationals won because Dixie Walker pitched better ball than did Petty, his team mates hit at the right time, ran bases with better judgment, and all told put up a better exhibition of the national pastime.

Schaefer and Milan Rhine. Schaefer played a great game at first, while Clyde Milan was the real clotting instant, pulling down three hits out of five times up. For the tallenders, and there is a certain amount of joy in referring to the lowly Browns in this manner, Potts Laporte was the shining light, his fielding efforts included several marvelous stops, and at the bat he cleaned up one-third of the St. Louis hit total.

Three times the visitors threatened to score. In the first inning, a pretty double play retired the side, and in the fourth Laporte and Hogan singled after two were out, but Clarke was a victim of one of Dixie's curve balls, and popped to Elberfeld. In the sixth a lightning relay of Laporte's healthy smack to right field, caught Melton at the plate. This was as near as Wallace wanderers came to doing any damage.

Petty's wildness got him into hot water at the start, for in the Nationals' opener, after Milan had perished via the Wallace-Rowan route, Dixie Schaefer walked and stole second, Spartacus Walker drew a pass, as did Elberfeld. Doc Gessler smashed one through Laporte for a clean single, scoring Schaefer and Walker. Elberfeld was able to reach third on the play and breezed across the rubber a minute later on McBride's long hoist to Melton. Conroy was called out on strikes, and the side retired.

Petty Pounder Again. Barney Petty tightened up until the seventh, when two more of the home folks made the circuit. Dixie Walker ripped a single into left field, and took third on Milan's crash to right, the latter racing to second before the ball could be returned. Bobby Wallace made a nice stop and threw of Schaefer's hard hit grounder. Spartacus Walker was the pinch hitting hero, crashing through Wallace's sending in both Dixie Walker and Milan.

Just to show that no hard feelings existed, the local tribe tossed in another run in the eighth, after two had perished. Dixie Walker again started the rumble by waiting for a base on balls. Milan jammed a single to center advancing Dixie to third, and when Wallace made a bum throw of Schaefer's grounder, Dixie crossed the plate. Red Walker made the third out, Wallace to Rowan.

Double play—Elberfeld to McBride, Unretd. Gessler and Schwitzer. Time of game, 1 hour and 20 minutes.

NOTES OF THE GAME. Some class to the Street-Walker duo. Shotten's hit in the first was a lucky one, the ball taking a high bound as it neared McBride.

Schaefer saved at least one run in the first when he speared McBride's high throw of Melton's grounder with his bare hand.

The hit and run play for the Browns was a failure in the first, a double play, Elberfeld to McBride, resulting.

Umpire Egan was the mark for many remarks from spectators. Here are some of the peevish droppings of venom that fell from the chins of the ardent fans:

Wallace's splendid stop of Schaefer's hard drive kept Dixie Walker and Milan on bases and retired Schaefer.

It was a moment later, however, that Clarence Walker smashed one, excellent hit over Bobby's head that brought in those self-same runners.

Have you noticed that Dixie pitches right-handed and bats left-handed?

One of the prettiest hits in the game was Clyde Milan's, in the eighth, just as he was splendidly placed in midfield, just out of range of the infielders and outfielders.

WHITE SOX ARE EASY. Athletics Score Seven Runs in First Inning, and Win, 10 to 0. Philadelphia, June 16.—The Athletics smashed Scott for seven runs in the first inning this afternoon, and defeated the White Sox, 10 to 0. Young, who relieved Scott during the first inning, pitched a good game. Coombs was hit freely, but had the Indians sign on the Sox, and they could not get by him. Score:

PHILLIES LOSE TO THE CUBS, 6 TO 3

Renlbach Settles Down After Third Inning.

Chicago, June 16.—The Cubs again took first place to-day by defeating Philadelphia, 6 to 3. Earl Moore was driven out of the box in the fourth, Chalmers succeeding him. After the Phillies made three runs in the third, three triples and a single evened the count, and Renlbach, who had been wabbling, steadied and held the Phillies. Score:

ANNIVERSARY DATA.

What do we care for dope in the light of contemporary happenings? Here's a fine lot of junk to look at this morning for a community which is already speculating whether our Adorable Abbie will have to beat out Mack's Big Savages or Jaworth Jennings' Slings Tigers this fall when we make the final dash for the pennant.

Rody's Roundabouts are battered down in the cellar and we go hence Monday to hunt bigger game in the jungles of Philadelphia. What'll happen there will put a crimp in Connie Mack's honeymoon or all the precedents of a. b. history will have been broken. Our brave boys have always had a habit of checking budding aspirants for honors just when they appear invincible.

Mem. Dear Mr. Mac, we need that game to-day. Go to it!
